SUBJECT: Report of Agent Penetration Cases.

Following is a report on penetration agent activities for the period 1 June to 1 July 1945.

MOUNT.

Operation involving the MOUNT Centrale at Steyring were started 4 June when a successful contact was established with Bucharest. On 5 June contact was established with Budapest. Further contacts with Bucharest were made on 8, 9, 11, 15, 20, 21, 22, and 25 June. Service messages were passed and some information regarding local conditions in Budapest following that of June 5, were on 10 and 17 June. Service and personal messages were passed as well as a message from the agent giving a few details of living conditions in Budapest. Since 17 June and 25 June respectively no further contacts have been made with Budapest and Bucharest. At the present time the MOUNT case has reached an impasse. A substantial amount of concrete information has been obtained which cannot be utilized effectively without our getting further into the field of positive intelligence. Discussions are now under way to determine what disposition will be made of the case under existing policy directives. 2 July 45
